

MORNING / MATIN

9h00 Plenary conference:
Post-conflict Oral History in Northern Ireland: Emotions, Activism and Agency
Anna Bryson (Queen's University, Belfast)

10h00 Break

Session C - Rurality and Power

10h15 Lucie Genay (Université de Limoges) Voices and silences of the US nuclear West: between pride, fear, anger, and indifference

Gianluca Cinelli (Fondazione Nuto Revelli)

Oral History of Peasant Society: Nuto Revelli's Methodological Legacy

Ariane Mak (Université de Paris)

Emotions and silences beyond the boundaries of the interview. Bevin Boys, oral history and ethnography

Christophe Lévêque et Emmanuel Petit (Université de Bordeaux)

Colère et stupéfaction au moment de la "révolte des gueux"

12h15 Lunch Break

AFTERNOON / APRÈS-MIDI

Session D - Displacement and migration

13h30 Armelle Faure (Independent Researcher)

Les émotions dans les témoignages oraux des familles déplacées des vallées englouties en France : pour une double approche cathartique

Lora Labarere (Université Toulouse 2 Jean Jaurès)

Matérialiser la mémoire : expérience sensible et émotionnelle du passé

Nicolas Raulin (EHESS)

"I was petrified of the South": emotional ties to the South held by the descendants of the Great Migration migrants"

15h00 Break

Session E - Emotions, activism and agency

15h30 Ana Elizabeth Rosas (University of California, Irvine)

Emotional and Intergenerational Diversity: Pathways to Mexican Immigrant Families' Coming of Age Experiences across the US-Mexico Borderlands

Aoife Price (European Disability Forum, National University of Ireland, Galway)

Emotions and Activism: tensions that arise as women with disabilities/disabled women demand space within the disability and women's movement

Amélie Ribieras (Université Paris 2 Panthéon-Assas)

Antifeminist Sorority in a US Women's group: the case of Phyllis Schlafly's Eagle Forum

James Karmel (Harford Community College, Maryland)

Emotions and Meaning through OH of the mid-20th Century African American Civil Rights Era

17h30 Closing remarks

21-22 April, 2022

Du 21 au 22 avril, 2022

Université de Pau et des Pays de l'Adour

Collège SSH

PRÉSIDENCE - AMPHITHÉÂTRE

+ d'infos : joana.etchart@univ-pau.fr – s.tobia@univ-pau.fr - www.univ-pau.fr

MORNING / MATIN

8h30 Conference Opening – Ouverture du colloque

9h00 Opening Plenary: (Monash University, Melbourne)

Shame and other feelings: Locating and interpreting emotion in oral history Alistair Thomson

10h00 Break

Session A - Emotions in war and conflict

10h15 Martha Beard (University of Brighton)

The Dúchas Oral History Archive: re-using community oral histories of the Troubles.

Izaskun Rekarte Bengoetxea (EHU/UPV)

The Silence of the Tortured Basque Activists

Sylvie Pomiès-Maréchal (Université d'Orléans)

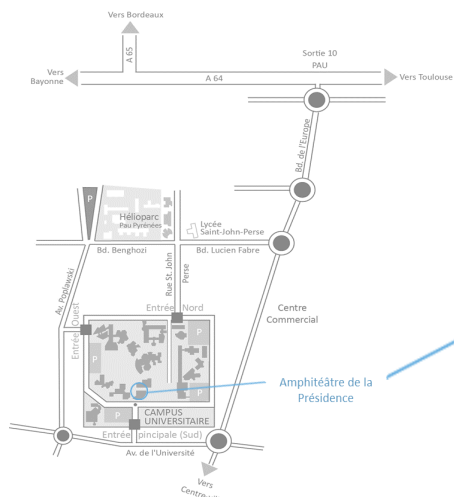

Memories of the Second World War : oral testimony at the interface between individual and collective memory

Simona Tobia (University of Pau, UPPA)

Face to face with the enemy. Female captivity in World War Two, oral narrative and secondary analysis: a case study

12h15 Lunch Break

COME TO THE CONFERENCE / VENIR AU COLLOQUE

AFTERNOON / APRÈS-MIDI

Roundtable

14h00 Violation of human rights in Ireland: Emotions, power and oral history

Participants:

Nathalie Sebbane (Université Sorbonne-Nouvelle)

Anna Bryson (Queen's University, Belfast)

Graham Dawson (University of Brighton)

Sponsored by the G.I.S. EIRE ()*

Session B – Migration and the emotions

15h00 Bridget Blankley (Southampton University)

Should you Cry or Cheer When the Flag Comes Down

Margarita Dounia (Athens College)

To leave and to leave again: emotional narratives of women in post WWII Zimbabwe

Ivan Hrstic and Marica Marinovic (Institute of Social Sciences Ivo Pilar and University of Zagreb)

In the search of migrants' identity through the analysis of emotions in pre-recorded interviews - the case of Croats in New Zealand

Subhasree Ghosh (University of Calcutta)

Emotional Reminiscences: Home and Intergenerational Memories of East Bengali Migrants

17h00 Break

17h30 Plenary conference:

Oral History and Affect: Listening, Feeling, Knowing

Lindsey Dodd (University of Huddersfield)

20h00 Dinner

(*) The G.I.S. EIRE is an international, inter-university research structure that seeks to develop transdisciplinary research on the two major themes of migration, and of human rights and democracy in Ireland.